

KR Gathering

The hood was up for many of the dozen home-built planes at the KR Gathering on Saturday in Mt. Vernon to share building ideas and tips. The annual event has been held at the Mt. Vernon Outland Airport for eight of the last nine years due to its central location, facilities and friendly staff, said organizer Larry Flesner. This year's event also commemorates 40 years of KR flying.

NICK MARIANO/REGISTER-NEWS

10/1/12

