

PAINTING ON RUNWAY

Jason Simonette, LEFT, and Phil Stillman, employees of Hi-Lite Markings based in Adams Center, N.Y., paint a runway intersection at Mt. Vernon Outland Airport on Wednesday. Simonette is applying glass beads to help illuminate the paint. The federally-mandated project is expected to be completed by the end of today.

Sentinel Photo/RICK HAYES

Hazmat training

Law enforcement officials from throughout Southern Illinois participated in a hazardous materials training session on Wednesday at the Mt. Vernon Outland Airport. Here, an officer gets decontaminated at a washing station.

