

THE SENTINEL TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 2024

Sentinel Photo/TRAVIS MORSE

Visiting with vendors

Kenny and Cindy Bragg, of Knoxville, visit with aviation vendor Philip Coyner, REAR CENTER, on Friday during the Midwest Aviation Expo at Mount Vernon Outland Airport.

Sentinel Photo/TRAVIS MORSE

Spirit of St. Louis

A replica of Charles Lindbergh's original Spirit of St. Louis aircraft was on display Friday during the Midwest Aviation Expo at Mount Vernon Outland Airport. This was one of two displays at the event recognizing Lindbergh's historic flight across the Atlantic in 1927.

Sentinel Photo/TRAVIS MORSE

Aviation Expo

Steve Rogers of Brenham, Texas, LEFT, and Kyle Davis of Evansville, Indiana, were among those in attendance Friday for the 16th annual Midwest Aviation Expo at Mount Vernon Outland Airport. The three-day event, held Sept. 5 to Sept. 7, featured about 40 aircraft-related vendors and a wide variety of aircraft on display. There were also aviation seminars and forums on different topics.

Sentinel Photo/TRAVIS MORSE

Many aircraft

Many different kinds of Light Sport Aircraft and other types of aircraft were on display during the Midwest Aviation Expo at Mount Vernon Outland Airport.